Scarborough Walk Of Fame announces 2018 inductees to be celebrated at Centennial College Event Centre, October 18, 5-8 PM

Toronto, September 19, 2018 – For more than a decade the Scarborough Walk of Fame has been celebrating the community of Scarborough, recognizing high achievement and inspiring the leaders of tomorrow. On Thursday, October 18th the legacy continues. Join us as we induct the following stars into the Scarborough Walk of Fame Court:

Kardinal Offishall – Entertainer

Andy Donato – Political Cartoonist

Ann Buller – President and CEO, Centennial College

Bruce Kidd – Principal (retired), University of Toronto Scarborough

Domenic Primucci – Founder, Pizza Nova

Jean Kennedy Campbell – Community Advocate, Nurse, First Woman Chair of a college in Ontario

Rosa Chan – Community Advocate, Fundraiser, Chair of countless community organizations and committees

New Venue!

For the first time in the association's history, the Scarborough Walk of Fame Induction Event will take place at Centennial College's Event Centre at Progress Campus. Inductees and guests will enjoy first-class dining, hospitality and entertainment all curated by the college's outstanding hospitality staff and students.

Announcing the First Rising Star Award Recipients

2018 is the inaugural year for the presentation of the Scarborough Walk of Fame Rising Star Awards. The following young people will be honoured for their early accomplishments:

Ravicha Ravinthiran – A volunteer dedicated to empowering young women by fostering a passion for the wonders of science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

UNIVERSITY OF

Ashley Rose Murphy – A public speaker who raises awareness around the world about HIV/AIDS and inspires people to harness their own strength to overcome obstacles in their lives.

Yasmin Rajabi – An active volunteer who established UTSC's first campus food bank and founded a non-profit that engages young women in politics and civic issues.

Delicia Raveenthirajan – An author, musician, singer/song writer who speaks to audiences across North America on leadership and mental health and takes a lead role in helping WE.org to raise funds for communities all over the world.

The Scarborough Walk of Fame Association is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to celebrating community, recognizing achievement and inspiring future leaders. Each year, more than 20 million people pass through the Scarborough Walk of Fame Court, located in the Scarborough Town Centre. Countless numbers will pause to admire the stars and be inspired by their accomplishments.
