FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Show The Love at Scarborough Town Centre with Durothethird & Deputy Mayor Thompson on February 8 from 2 – 5 p.m.

Meet & Greet Deputy Mayor Thompson during Scarborough Royalty Launch to celebrate Scarborough Community

SCARBOROUGH, ON, January 29, 2020 – Scarborough Town Centre celebrates February with community love and Scarborough pride. Following the centre’s Live Painting event with renowned local artist Durothethird in 2019, Scarborough Town Centre invites visitors to Show The Love on February 8 from 2 to 5 p.m. The event will feature the unveiling of the Scarborough Royalty mural, an appearance from Deputy Mayor Thompson and retail activations. Taking place during the month of love, the event is bringing guests together to commemorate their deep affection for Scarborough.

“We’re excited to launch Scarborough Town Centre’s second collaboration with local artist Durothethird, an illustration of Scarborough pride, through Show The Love,” says Lisa Resnic, Marketing Manager, Scarborough Town Centre. “Show The Love is a combination of art, community, and retail – core pillars of STC. We invite the Scarborough community to meet with us and their loved ones and witness the unveiling of Durothethird's mural, shop with exciting vendors, and Meet & Greet Deputy Mayor Thompson.”

Event highlights will include the launch of Scarborough Royalty, a Meet & Greet with Deputy Mayor Thompson, retail activations by Scaddabush, Lindt, LCBO and DAVIDsTEA, and the opportunity to purchase exclusive Durothethird merchandise and prints, with a portion of proceeds donated to WIRES Wildlife Rescue's initiatives for the Australian fires. The event aligns with Scarborough Town Centre's core values of compassion, positivity, and community. With many ways to spend the holiday of love, Scarborough Town Centre is encouraging attendees to Show The Love and celebrate Scarborough.
